3/27/67

New York Daily News

Garrison Quiz 'Lost Witness' Has Lie Test

Washington March 25 (UPI)—Gordon Novel, the "missing witness" in New Orleans district attorney Jim Garrison's investigation of an alleged Kennedy assassination conspiracy, popped up in a Washington suburb today

Jim Garrison
His action is called fraud and took a lie detector test to support his charge that the Garrison investigation was a "fraud."

The operator of the polygraph test, Lloyd Furr of nearby McLean, Va., said Novel "passed" the lie test. "He showed no deceptions," Furr said.

Novel's Reply to Furr

"Do you honestly believe Garrison's conspiracy prosecution is a fraud?" Furr said he asked Novel. "Yes," he said Novel replied. A former New Orleans night club operator, Novel left New Orleans shortly before a grand jury investigating the assassination tried to subpena him. He is wanted in New Orleans as a material witness.

Novel's connection with the Garrison investigation has never been precisely spelled out.